

WARWICK
THE UNIVERSITY OF WARWICK

Chilean Exiles and World University Service
AHRC Project Seminar

'Supporting Exiles and Refugees: 1970s to the Present'

14 November 2017

IAS Seminar Room, Milburn House, University of Warwick

Programme

10.00am

Welcome and Opening Remarks

John King (formerly of WUS and Project Co-Investigator)

10.30am-12.30pm

Session 1: Chilean Exiles and World University Service (WUS)

Film screening and discussion on the WUS programme with Alan Angell (University of Oxford, Academics for Chile and WUS), Marilyn Thompson (formerly of WUS), and former WUS scholarship holders.

12.30-1.30pm

Lunch

1.30-3.00pm

Session 2: Chilean Exiles in Europe (Examples from the UK, France and Germany)

Presentations by Grace Livingstone (University of Cambridge), Jasmine Gideon (Birkbeck, University of London), Peter Grieder (University of Hull), and Rosa Olmos (Bibliothèque de Documentation Internationale Contemporaine, Nanterre); chaired by Jo Angouri (University of Warwick).

3.00-3.30pm

Tea/Coffee

3.30-5.00pm

Session 3: Refugee Experiences in Historical and Contemporary Perspective

Roundtable discussion with Alan Phillips (former WUS General Secretary), Hélia López (Sociologists Outside Academic and WUS scholarship holder), Arten Llazari (Refugee and Migrant Centre, Black Country and Birmingham), Reem Doukmak (University of Warwick); chaired by Alison Ribeiro de Menezes (University of Warwick, Project Principal Investigator).

GLOBAL RESEARCH PRIORITIES

CONNECTING CULTURES

Arts & Humanities
Research Council